SHRINE

OF

OUR LADY OF VLADIMIR

We dedicate this volume of the Troubadour to our Lady of Vladimir. Under this title our Lady is honored by members of the Russian Orthodox Church as savior of Moscow and patroness of unity.

In 1395 Tammerlane and his Tartar army threatened Moscow. The Grand Duke of Moscow ordered the icon of our Lady of Vladimir to be brought to the city. On the day when the icon arrived, Tammerlane had an apparition of the Virgin in the icon. He turned from Moscow and spared the city.

Several years later a feud arose between the czars and the heirarchy of the Church. The Russian people flocked to the shrine of our Lady of Vladimir and prayed that they may be saved from the evil acts of their leaders.

Today the icon is in the Uspensky Cathedral in Moscow.

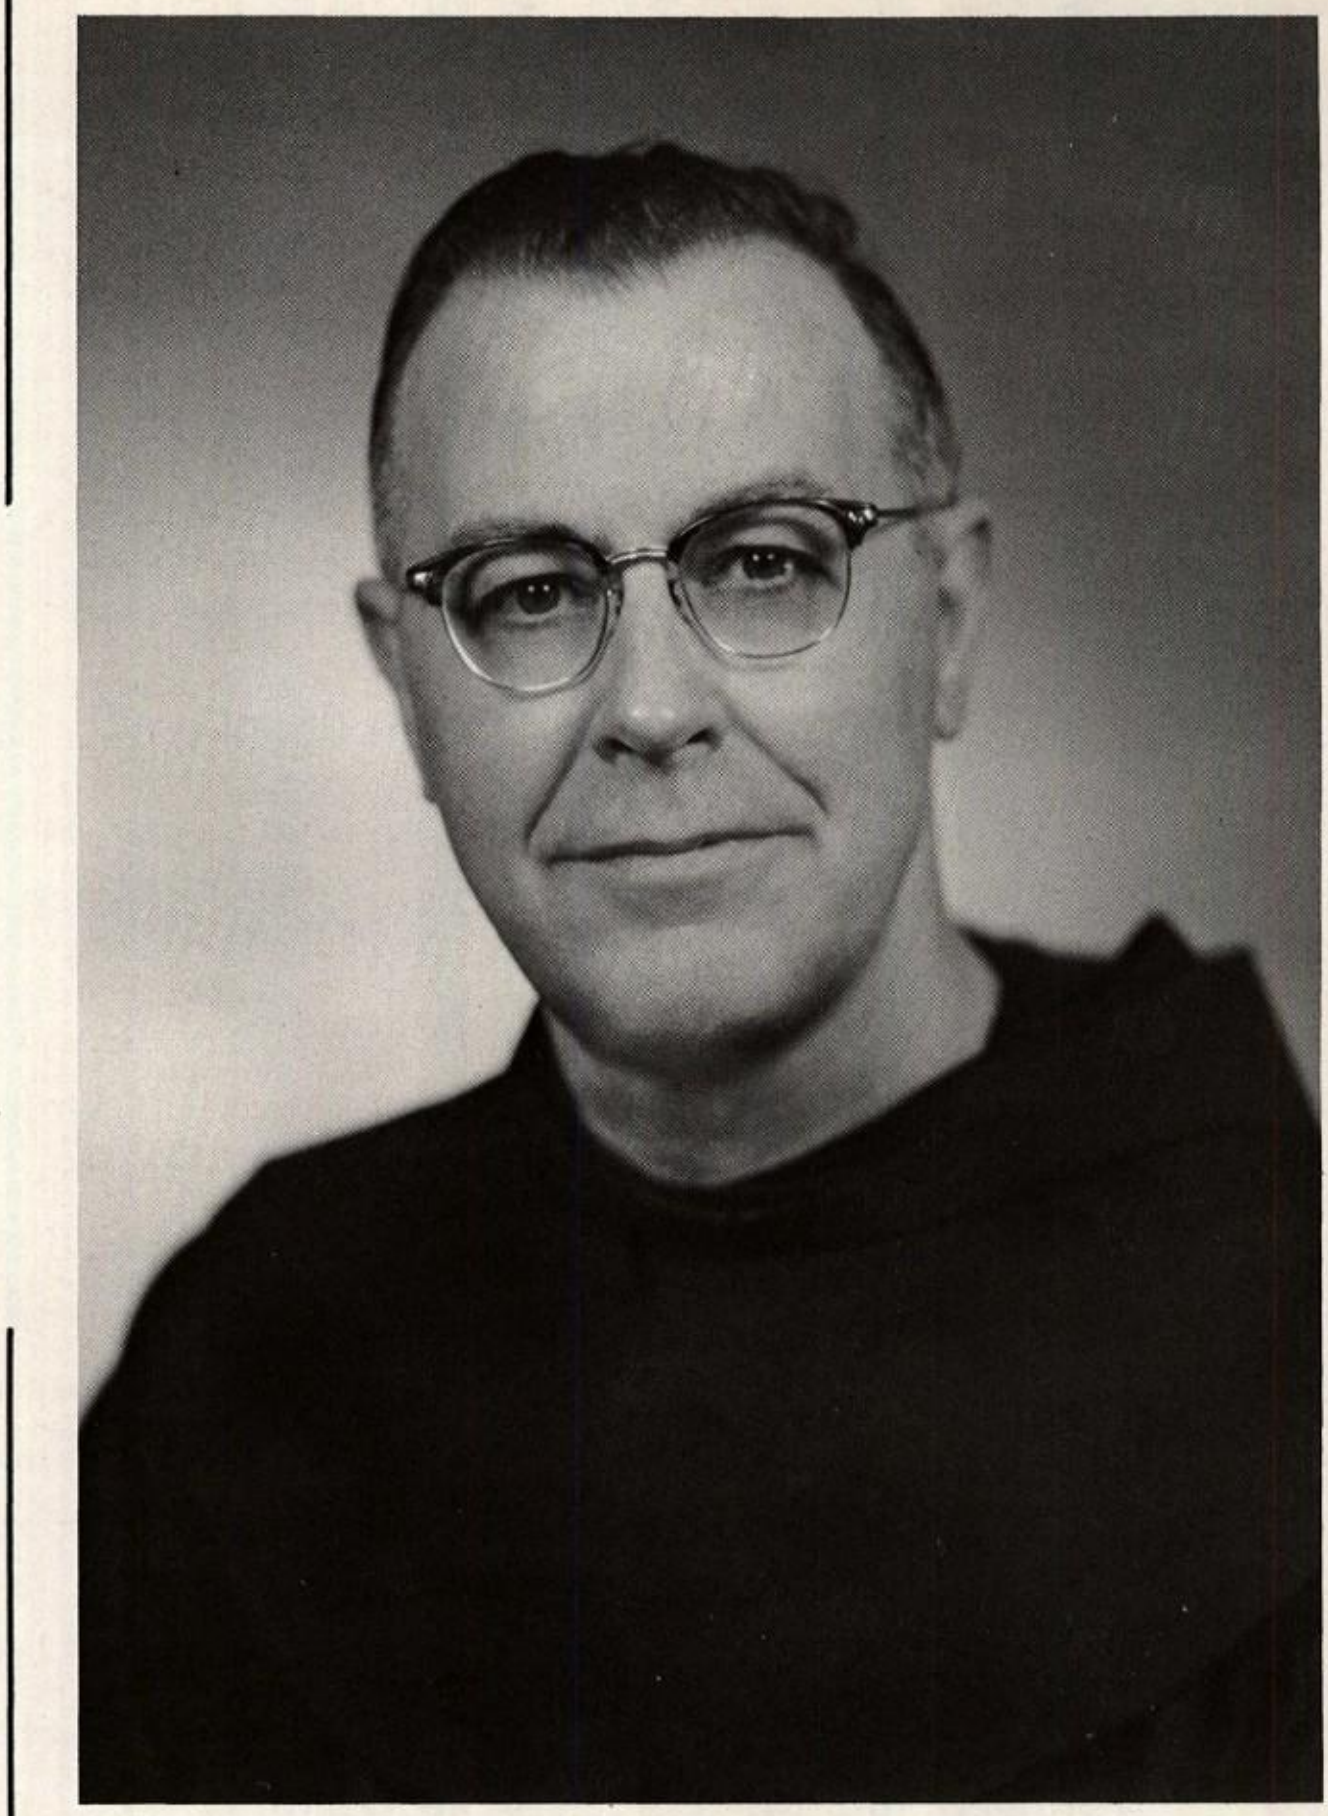
On November 11, 1962, Fr. Sylvan Becker, O.F.M., Provincial of St. John Baptist Province and President of Roger Bacon High School, blessed the icon after the Homecoming Mass. Fr. Kieran Quinn, O.F.M. painted the icon.



The Faculty and Students of Roger Bacon High School congratulate Fr. Andrew Fox, O.F.M., their principal, on his twenty-fifth anniversary as a Franciscan priest. We earnestly hope that Father will continue to guide us that we may constantly respond to the values revealed to us through experience and Revelation.

After Mass Fr. Andrew stops for a picture with his relatives.

The Ursuline Sisters congratulate Fr. Andrew. At one time Father was their Chaplain.

Anthony Gertz, the school president, offers his congratulations after the Mass of Thanksgiving.

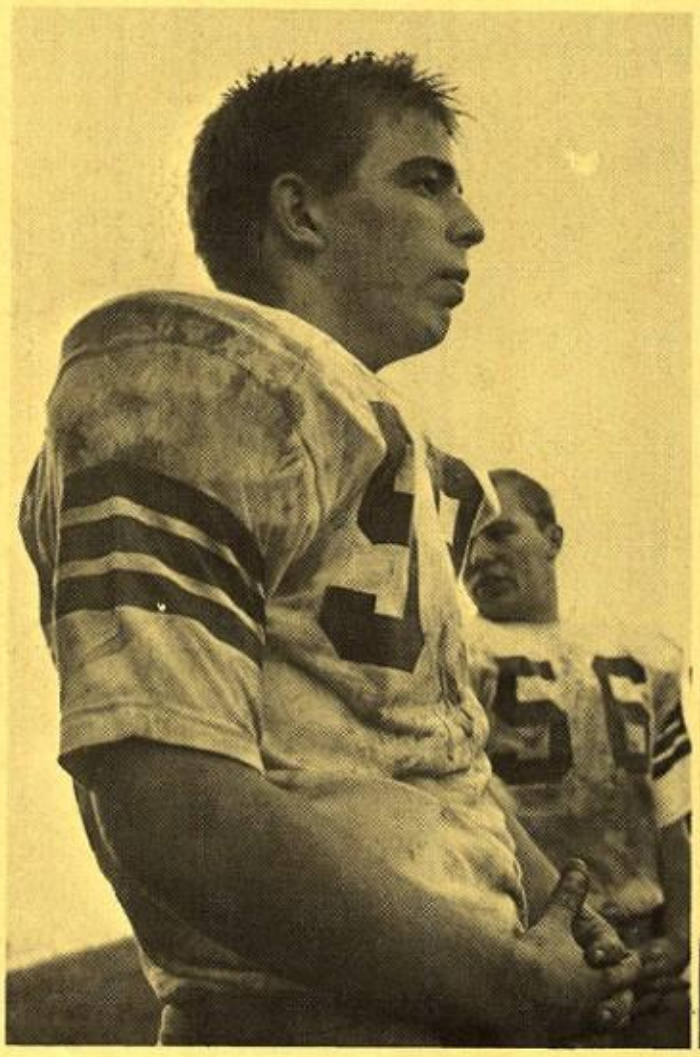
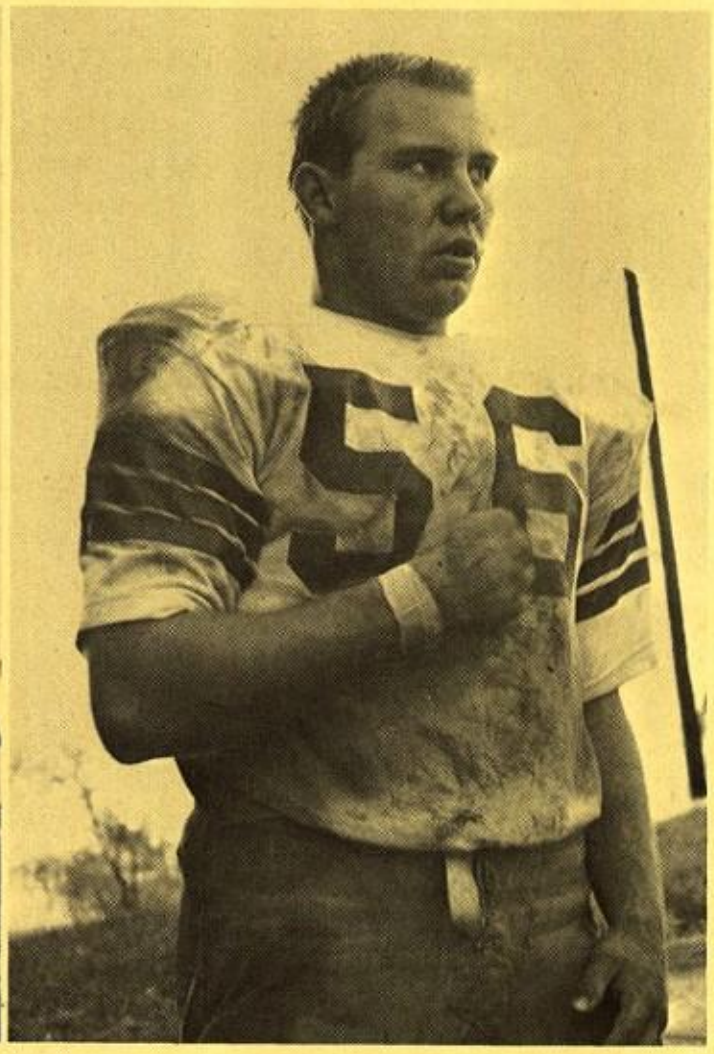
Football - GCL Champs

The Spartan phalanx moves up and out to prove that we are the best in the GCL.

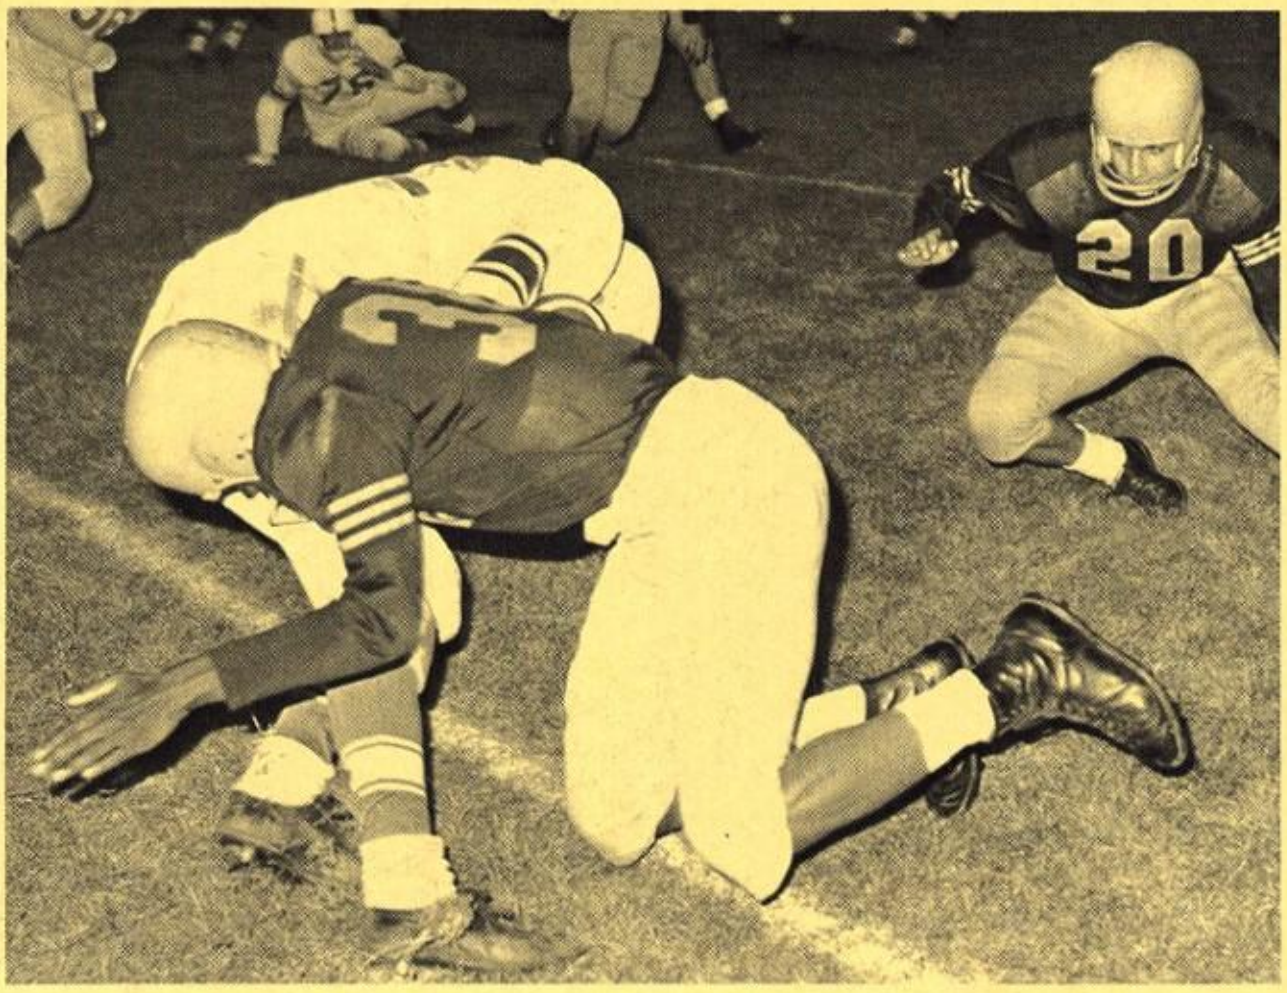




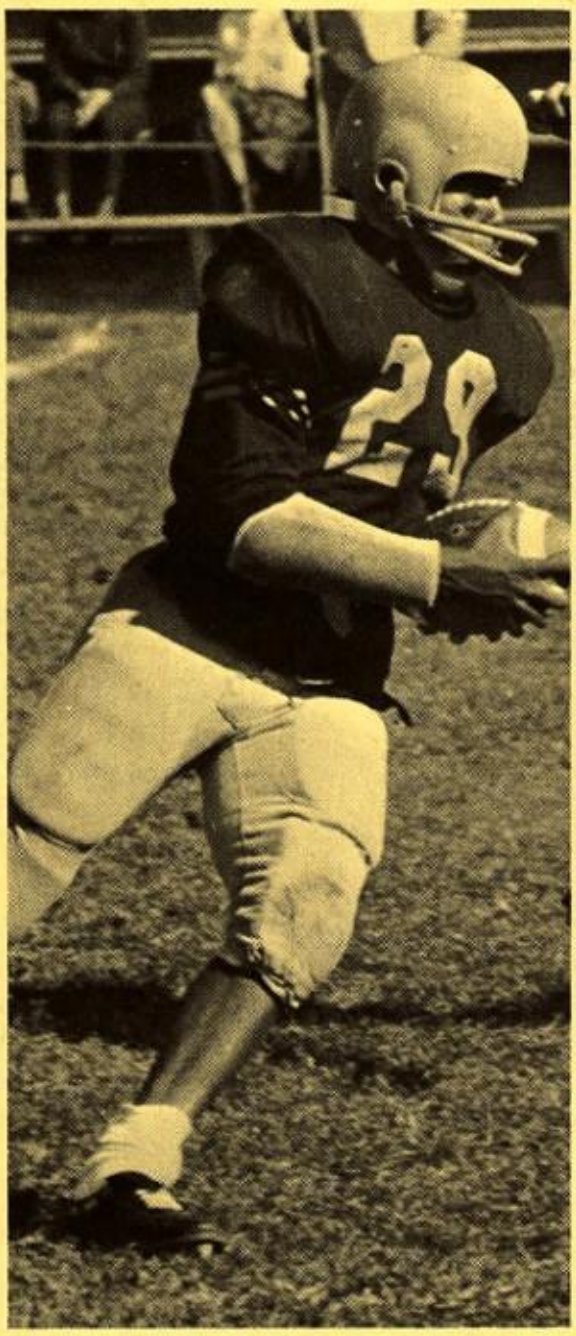
John Kasselmann and Robert Heeg are ready for a relaxing hot shower after another Spartan victory.

Behind a moving wall Schatzman racks up yardage against Walnut Hills.

Gary Banks chops down a Hamilton Ram:



This is the way we clear a path for the man with the ball.



Ty Anthony, 29, runs the ball around.

All afternoon the LaSalle Lancers were running the other way. Dave Gooding, 49, and Mike Luchi, 52, do the chasing.

John Kasselmann and other Spartans show how to take a ball-carrier down.

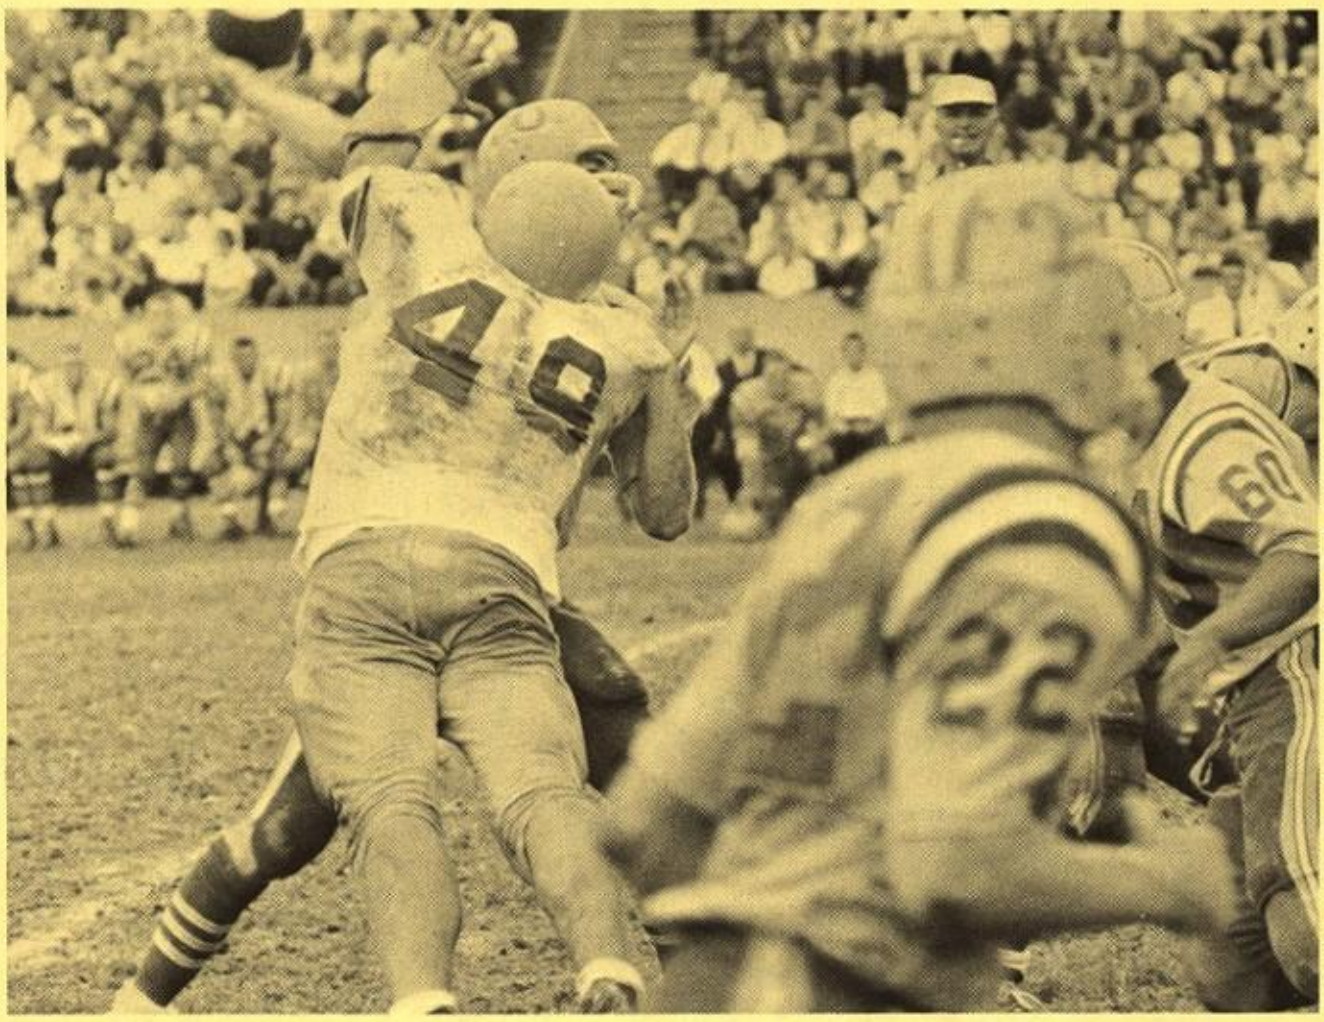
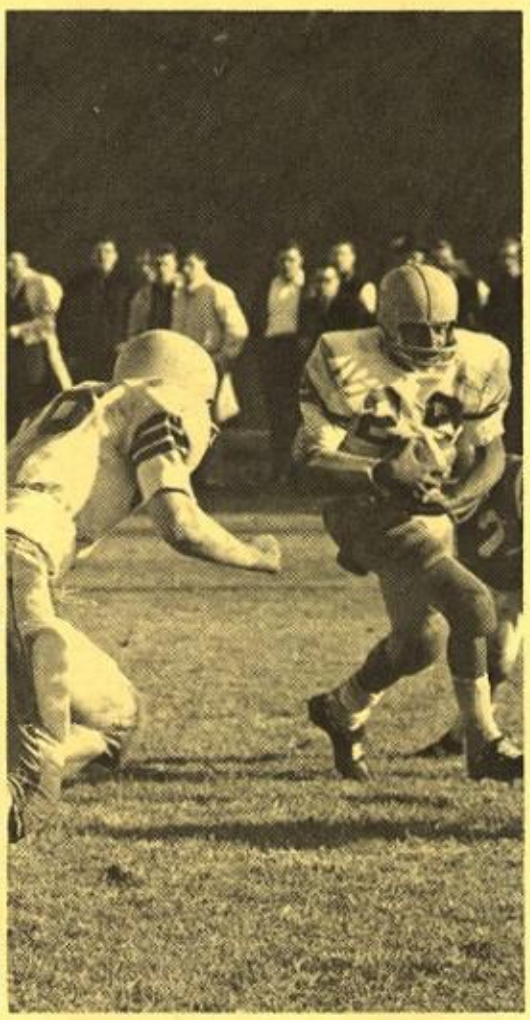
Dave Meyer goes up for one in the Xavier game.

Purcell - 0 Bacon - 6

Ty Anthony tries to run through a couple of Purcell Cavaliers. Gooding gives the Cavaliers a rough time.





Bacon - 14
Xavier - 6

Dave Meyer, 42, cuts over center and picks off one of Case's passes.

Roger Bacon's Spartans clinched the Catholic League Championship for the second year in a row as they disarmed the St. Xavier Bombers, 14—6, in Bacon's fourteenth straight win.

"A typical GCL football game — good clean playing," expressed the winning coach, Bron Bacevich. Both teams put on a strong defensive show before Bacon's Homecoming crowd of 6000.

After two kick-off attempts, St. Xavier put the ball on the 35 yard line and Bacon began its march.

Pat Case completed five out of five passes as the fifteen play drive was climaxed by Ray Culter who went one yard over right tackle to score. Case's pass to Bob Plum was good for the conversion. St. Xavier's drive ended on the 23 yard line and was pushed back to the 33.

In the second quarter the ball changed hands six times with Bacon taking over on their own ten yard line when the half ended.

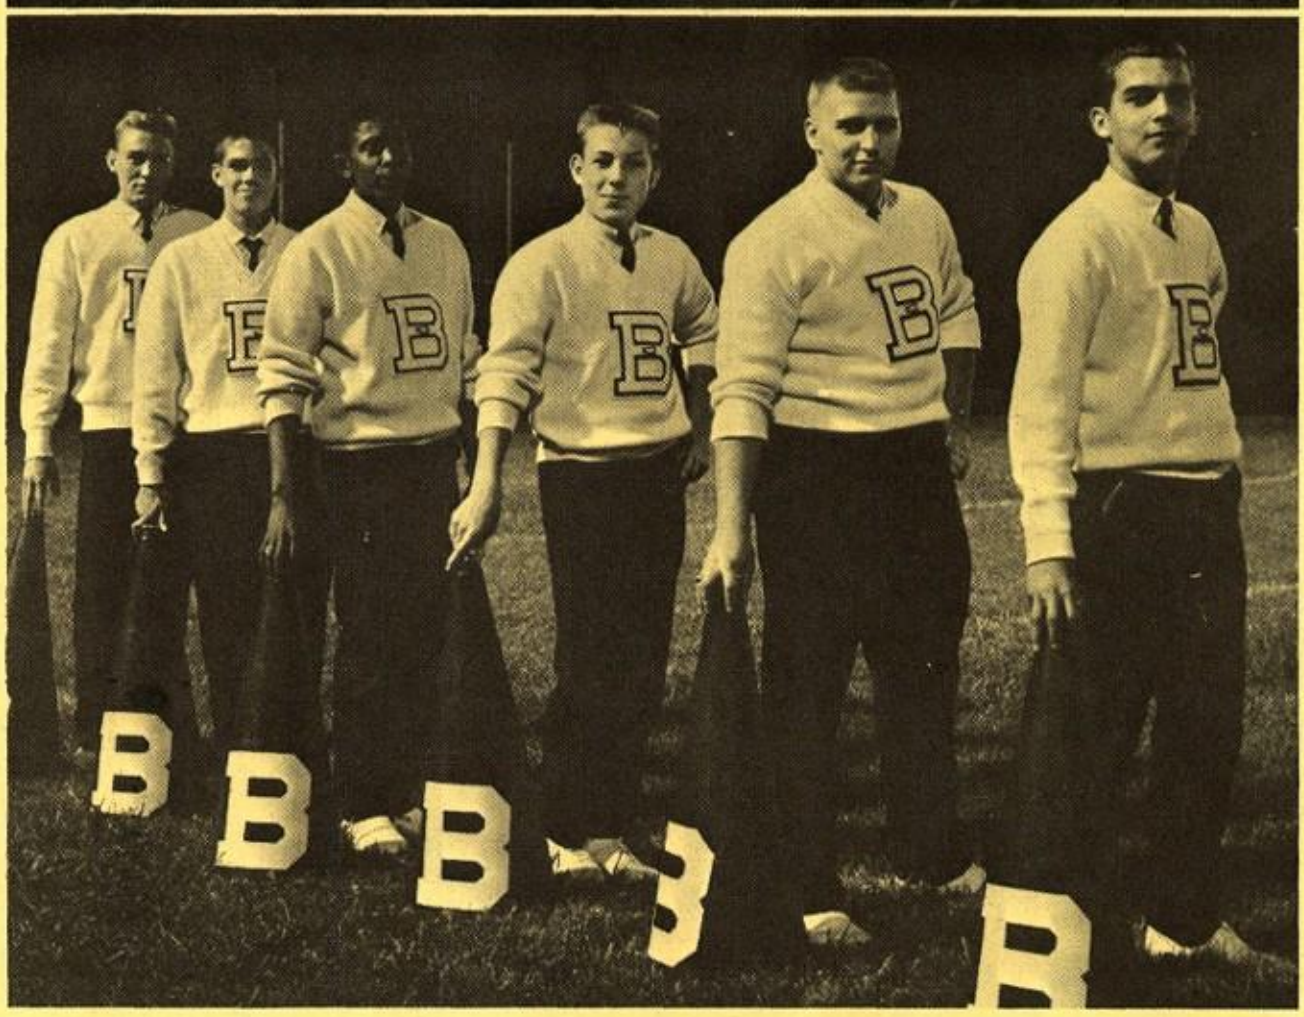
A spirited St. X team returned from the lockers and drove to Bacon's five before a brick wall defense stopped them. Bacon then carried to the Bomber's fourteen and fumbled. Phil Cox, St. X fullback, figured in seven out of eight plays, carrying over right tackle for one yard and the Bomber's only score.

Bacon dominated the fourth quarter by driving 80 yards in fourteen plays, setting up Ty Anthony's three yard scoring plunge off right tackle.

Bacon totaled 259 yards, 86 of these through the air. The Spartans notched 16 first downs to the Bomber's 7. Pat Case completed 8 out of 13 passes; Ty Anthony ran up 75 yards rushing.

Bob Naberhaus, Rm. 27

Under Fr. Theodoric the student body became very enthusiastic and supported the team. Father organized a team of students who prepared signs and gimmicks like these for the various games.



These Spartan cheerleaders were able to get the crowd off their seats: Barry Kohler, Joe Werle, Joe Carter, Bob Rickenbaugh, Bill Poggendick, and Jeff Cusher.

Starting at six o'clock the Discussion participants are: Jim Bedinghaus, John Nichols, Frank Sheppard, Ed Nies, Vic Hildebrand, Howard Fahtmaier, Carl Reese, Betsy Abell, June Obert, Rosemary Rettig, Carol Hase, Karen Schweitzer, Shelley Audia, Libby Lamping, and Linda Vitali.

Girls from McAuley, Mother of Mercy, Mount Notre Dame, and Our Lady of Angels visited Roger Bacon for a discussion on "Catholic Teenagers and Dating" on Feb. 8.

Bacon's journalism class sponsored the meeting. The discussion was broken into two parts. In the first part, the Bacon quizzers fired practical questions on dating at the girls. The second part was devoted to a discussion of steady dating.

If you're in the dark about corsages, you can profit from some of the girls' advice. Ask her the color of her dress, but that's all. You, with the help of the florist, must decide the color of the flowers. And you alone must choose the kind of flowers and type of corsage.

Most of the girls were cool toward movies. The girls did like athletic events, however. The girls unanimously agreed that they would enjoy going to a "high-brow" play on a date.

The students then turned to the question of steady dating. Some of the reasons for steady dating were high-pressure advertising and the Hollywood image. Two remedies suggested were to try to get the person to go stag as much as possible and to turn as much public opinion against this practice.

(Best Way of Calling)

An extension phone all your own! It's the greatest! The cost is so small! Only thing better would be a Princess on your own telephone line with your name in the phone book. The Princess dial glows softly—lights brightly when you lift the receiver. Call 396-9900 for complete details. You probably can pay for it yourself!
